

ECM 2018 - Extension-Tour

25./26. June 2018

Hello Cobistis,

For a limited number of petrolheads and altimeter junkies from abroad I offer an ECM 2018 extension tour. If you already have spent a lot of time to get to Graubünden, you could additionally enjoy a dozen fantastic mountain passes and landscapes in a smaller group, where you can drive a little faster (but always in the limit).

This is a three-country tour which leads from Davos to nearby South Tyrol (Italy) and ends in Vorarlberg (Austria). There are 13 passes, of which 10 are over 2000m on our way. There are driving delicacy like the Gavia, the Penserjoch, the Timmelsjoch or the Silvretta-Hochalpenstraße on our route, which tell every curve hunter something.

The tour ends near Bludenz, where you can stay overnight or continue your journey home via the Rhine valley towards Feldkirch or Bregenz.

Start: 25.06.18, 9 Uhr - Sunstar Hotel Davos

Target: 26.06.18, ca. 17 Uhr - Bludenz

Distance: about 580 km und 13'140 Highmeter

Highlights: Flüelapass (2383m), Ofenpass (2149m), Umbrailpass (2501m), Stilfserjoch (2758m), Gáviapass (2618m), Tonalepass (1883m), Mendelpass (1363m), Penserjoch (2215m), Jaufenpass (2055m), Timmelsjoch (2509m), Piller Höhe (1558m), Bieler Höhe (2036m), Silvretta-Hochalpenstraße (2036m)

South-Tirol, Eppan, Lake Caldaro

Hotel: Gardenhotel Premstaller Bolzano (www.hotel-premstaller.it)

Cost: Approx. 75 € per person in double or single room with half-board for the overnight stay in South Tyrol.

Registration deadline: 10/31/17

The registration is limited to 10 cars. First come, first served.

Planned route:

